

The Archive CD Books Project exists to make reproductions of old books, documents and maps available on CD to genealogists and historians, and to co-operate with libraries, museums and record offices to scan and digitise their collections for free, and to provide money to renovate old books in their collection.

St Andrews

By D. Hay Fleming

New Edition
Copiously Illustrated

*"Often I think of the beautiful town
That is seated by the sea ;
Often in thought go up and down
The pleasant streets of that dear old town,
And my youth comes back to me."*

—Longfellow

J. & G. INNES, St Andrews Citizen Office

1897

P R E F A C E

This little work is so arranged that tourists and excursionists may visit all the lions of the City in the least possible time; but those who sojourn for a longer period will, it is hoped, find that it is at once the handiest and fullest, the most compact and the most accurate Guide to St Andrews yet produced; and much of its information is drawn from original sources.

From the Introductory Sketch, a general idea of the place and its history may be gathered; while the MAP and the paragraph on the PRINCIPAL STREETS (pages 6, 7) should enable strangers to find their way easily. The most hurried visitor should not miss seeing the West Port, the Black-Friars' Chapel, the Town Hall (see p. 16 and also p. 103), the Town Church, St Mary's College and University Library, St Leonard's, the Pends, the Cathedral, St Rule's Tower and Church, the Kirk-Hill, the Castle, and the United College with its Chapel and Museum. Those who may have reached the heart of the City before procuring this Hand-Book should retrace their steps to the West Port, which they can do in five minutes. The account of that ancient gateway will be found on p. 12, and from thence the objects of interest can be taken in the order arranged.

The enterprising publishers are bringing out this carefully revised edition in two forms—a sixpenny and a shilling one. The text of the Guide proper is the same in both; but the shilling one is printed on superior paper, is better bound, more fully illustrated, and also contains a section on the Neighbourhood, and an appendix on the Town Church Bells. Eight of the illustrations are from admirable sketches by Mr Hardie of the "Citizen" Office.
