

I N D E X.

A

- A DULTERY, Trials for, from p. 312. to p. 319.
 Aikenhead, Thomas, tried for blasphemy, p. 322.
 Anderson, John, George Clerk and John Ramsay tried for his murder, p. 142.
 Appeal, idea that an appeal lies from the Court of Justiciary to the House of Lords,
 p. 81. 106.
 Argyle, Duke of, sits as Justice-General on the trial of Stewart of Aucharn, p. 192.
 Argyle, Earl of, sits as Justice-General on the trial of the Master of Forbess, p. 3.
 ————— prosecutes Mr John Stewart for leafing-making, p. 121.
 Armstrong, John, tried for the murder of Sir John Carmichael, p. 130.
 Auchmouty, Charles, tried for having committed treason, by engraving a political print, p. 91.

B

- Ballentine, claims to be tried by jury, p. 115.
 Blair, Alexander, tried for incest, p. 306.
 Blasphemy, Thomas Aikenhead, tried for, p. 322.
 Borders, lawless state of the Scottish and English, p. 130.
 Borthwick, Francis, tried for blasphemy, p. 323.
 Bothwell, Francis, Earl of, attempts to seize the King, p. 35.
 Bothwell, James, Earl of, present at the murder of Darnley, p. 9.

C

- Campbell of Glenure, James Stewart tried for his murder, p. 192.
 Carkeiril, John, murders one of the Lords of Session, p. 155.
 Carmichael, Robert, schoolmaster, tried for the murder of one of his scholars,
 p. 175.
 Carmichael, Sir John, of that ilk, John Armstrong tried for his murder, p. 130.
 Carnegie, James, of Finhaven, tried for the murder of the Earl of Strathmore,
 p. 178.
 Chiffie, John, of Dalry, tried for the murder of Lord President Lockhart, p. 150.
 Clark, George, and John Ramsay, tried for the murder of John Anderson, p. 142.

- Clergymen; see Nonjuring, Papist, Presbyterian, Religion.
 Connochar, John, tried for celebrating clandestine marriage, p. 339.
 Cornwall, Archibald, tried for attempting to hang up the King's picture on the gallows, p. 63.
 Crichton, Mr Andrew, trial of, for declining the authority of the King, and Privy Council, p. 67.

D

- Darnley, trial of Douglafs for the murder of, p. 7.; and of the Earl of Morton for the same, p. 388.
 Dickson, John, tried for parricide, p. 129.
 Douglafs, Archibald, Parson of Glasgow, tried for the treasonable murder of Henry King of Scots, p. 7.
 Douglafs, James, Andrew Rutherford tried for his murder, p. 140.
 Dow, tried for stealing wine, ale, &c. p. 112.
 Drummond, Robert, tried for a defamatory libel, p. 112.
 Drysdale, William, tried for incest, p. 307.
 Dundas, Robert, of Arncliffe, saves Carnegie of Finhaven, p. 189. and Mr Henderson, p. 296.

E

- Erskine, Sir Thomas, and Sir John Ramsay, relieve King James at St Johnston, p. 29.

F

- Falconer, John, tried for using false keys, p. 113.
 Falconer, Patrick, George Cumming tried for his murder, p. 169.
 Fleming, John, tried for slanderous speeches against the King, p. 69.
 Flight, Alexander, tried for insulting the Provost of Cupar, p. 113.
 Forbefs, the Master of, tried for high treason, p. 1.
 Forgery, trial for, p. 282.
 Fornication, trial for, p. 320.
 Frazer, Captain Simon, (Lord Lovat) tried for high treason, rape, &c. p. 79.
 Frazer, Charles, Lord; tried for high treason, p. 75.
 Frazer, John, tried for adultery, p. 314.

G

- Gardens, breaking of, p. 305.
 Gillespie, John, and others, tried for the murder of Major Menzies, p. 163.
 Gowry, genealogical anecdotes of the family of, p. 14.
 Gowry, John, Earl of, tried for conspiring to murder the King, p. 20.
 _____ obtains a superfedere, or personal protection from arrest, p. 373.
 Gowry,

- Gowry, William, Earl of, feizes King James, p. 35.
 Graham, John, a Lord of Session, murdered by Sir James Sandilands, p. 155.
 Gray, James, tried for the murder of Archibald Murray, p. 146.
 Gray, the Master of, Chancellor of the Jury who sat upon Archibald Douglas, p. 11.; genealogical anecdotes of his family, p. 14.; assaults King James in the palace of Falkland, p. 36.
 Green, Captain Thomas, and his crew, tried for piracy, p. 248.
 Guthrie, John, tried for adultery, p. 312.

II

- Haitly, Margaret, tried for adultery, p. 317.
 Hamilton, family of, next heirs to the Crown, p. 41.
 Hamilton, Sir Thomas, King's Advocate, p. 21. 63. 67.
 Henderson, Mr George, merchant's trial for forgery, p. 282.
 Home, of Spott, tried and acquitted of the murder of Darnley, p. 13.

I

- Impostor, of Bargarran, p. 361.
 Incest, trials for, from p. 306. to 311.
 Johnston, Agnes, tried for the murder of ——— Lamb, a child, p. 138.
 Jury, trial by, the various attacks made upon it, from p. 109. to p. 120. p. 174.; privilege of jury's restored, p. 189.; and abused, p. 243. 244.
 Justiciary, Court of, idea that an appeal lies from this court to the House of Lords, p. 81. 106.

K

- Ker, Sir James, tried for celebrating clandestine marriage, p. 337.

L

- Leafing-making, trials for, p. 121. 126.
 Lockhart, Sir George, Lord President of the Court of Session, John Chislie of Dalry tried for murdering him, p. 150.
 Logan of Restalrig sits on the trial of Archibald Douglas for the murder of Darnley, p. 13.; genealogical anecdotes of his family, p. 14.; tried for Gowry's conspiracy, p. 46.; summons of treason against him, p. 375.
 Lords of Session, Galbraith, Graham, and Lockhart, murdered, p. 155.
 Lufs, Laird of; Laird of Macgregor tried for slaughtering his friends, p. 133.

M

- Mary, Queen, Thomas Scott and Henry Yair tried for keeping her a prisoner, p. 376.

Macdonald:

- Macdonald, Archibald, of Barisdale, tried as attainted of high treason, p. 100.
 Macgregor, Laird of, tried for slaughtering the Laird of Lufs's friends, p. 133.
 Macgregor, Malcolm, tried for the murder of John Stewart, p. 229.
 Macgregor, Patrick Roy, tried for a number of crimes, p. 136.
 Marriage, clandestine celebration of, p. 337. 339.
 Mass, trials for faying, p. 328. 335.
 M'Iver and M'Allum, tried for the frandulent destroying of ships, p. 262.
 M'Leod, Mrs, tried for forgery, p. 282.
 Menzies, Major, John Gillespie and others tried for his murder, p. 163.
 Morton, Earl of, concerned in the murder of Darnley, p. 6.; seifes King James,
 p. 34.; tried for the murder of Darnley, 388.
 Mowbray, David, tried for tumult within burgh, p. 239.
 Mowbray, Francis, doom pronounced over his dead body, p. 65.
 Murder, trials for, p. 130. 133. 136. 138. 140. 142. 146. 150. 156. 163. 169.
 178. 192. 229.
 Murdoch, John, tried for adultery, p. 318.
 Murray, Archibald, James Gray tried for his murder, p. 146.

N

- Niven, John, tried for leasing-making against the Duke of Albany and York,
 p. 126.
 Nonjuring clergymen, trials of, p. 339. 343.

O

- Ogilvie, the Jesuit, his remarks upon the mob of Edinburgh which assaulted King James in the Tolbooth, p. 37.; his trial for faying of mass, acknowledging the Papal jurisdiction, declining to answer questions put to him by the Privy Council, &c. p. 328.
 Ormiston, Laird of, his confession when executed for the murder of Darnley,
 p. 382.

P

- Papist, p. 36. 240. 328. 335.
 Parricide, John Dickson tried for, p. 129.
 Pirracy, trials for, p. 248. 262.
 Pifcatorie, Leonardo, tried for shooting and maiming John Simpson, claims to be tried by jury, p. 114.
 Poieret, Elias, John Master of Tarbett, and others, tried for his murder, p. 156.
 Presbyterian clergymen, their zeal against carnal impurities, and against witchcraft,
 p. 310. 358. 360.

Prescription

Prescription of crimes established, p. 229.
 Print, political, Mr John Thomson and Charles Auchmouty, tried for causing one to be engraved, p. 91.

R

Ramsay, John, and George Clerk, tried for the murder of John Anderson, p. 142.
 Ramsay, Sir John, and Sir Thomas Erskine, relieve the King at St Johnston, p. 29.
 Religion, crimes against, p. 322. 328. 335. 337. 339. 343.
 Riot; see Tumult.
 Robertson, Patrick, tried for adultery, p. 313.
 Rois, Thomas, tried for publishing at Oxford a pasquinade against the Scots, p. 70.
 Rutherford, Andrew, tried for the murder of James Douglas, p. 140.
 Ruthven, Mr Alexander, tried for conspiring to murder the King, p. 20.

S

Sandilands, Sir James, relieves the King, p. 36.; murders a Lord of Session, p. 155.; gets the gift of a Lady's estate who was burned for witchcraft, p. 350.
 Session, Galbreath, Graham, and Lockhart, Lords of, murdered, p. 155.
 Ships, destroying of, p. 262.
 Skene, James, tried for treason, p. 73.
 Stansfield, Philip, remarkable anecdote of him, p. 32.
 Stewart, James, tried for the murder of Campbell of Glenure, p. 192.
 Stewart, John, Malcolm Macgregor tried for murdering him, p. 229.
 Stewart, Mr John, tried for leasing-making against the Earl of Argyle, p. 121.
 Storey, James, tried for the murder of William Stewart, p. 179.
 Strathmore, Earl of, James Carnegie of Finhaven tried for his murder, p. 178.

T

Tannahill, Barbara, tried for incest, p. 307.
 Tarbet, John, Master of, tried for the murder of Elias Poiret, p. 156.
 Taylor; Mr Daniel, and twenty-four other clergymen, tried for not praying for King George, p. 343.
 Tennent, Francis, tried for a seditious pasquinade, p. 61.
 Theft, and fornication, tried in one indictment, p. 320.
 Thomson, Mr John, tried for having committed treason by engraving a political print, p. 94.
 Treason, trials for, p. 1. 7. 20. 46. 61. 63. 65. 67. 69. 70. 73. 75. 79. 91. 100.
 Tumult within burgh, David Mowbray tried for, p. 239.

W

- Wallace, Mr John, tried for saying mass, p. 335.
 Weemyfs, and Young, claim to be tried by jury, p. 115.
 Wilson, James, tried for incest, p. 306.
 Witchcraft, trials for, from p. 347. to p. 370.
 Witch, account of expences of burning one, p. 392.

Y

- York, James, Duke of, sits in Privy Council when James Skene emits a treasonable declaration, p. 73.; John Niven tried for leasing-making against him, p. 126.
 Young, and Weemyfs, claim to be tried by jury, p. 115.

F I N I S.

Sarnley,